AIDS has claimed many lives in Zimbabwe. There are many orphans left and grand mothers stay with these orphans. They cannot afford to give them enough support on clothes, food and education. The country is experiencing economic hardships and it is very difficult to get basic commodities. Some do not attend school because of failure to pay fees.

Finally I am a dark brown person with brown eyes. I am quite fat and put on size forty-two dresses and size six shoes. I also like sweet smelling soaps and soaps.

Hope to meet you soon.
